The following methodology will be practised for identification and treatment of the Abnormally Low Bids (ALB) in this tender process of AEGCL:

- Absolute Approach is to be considered when there is fewer than five substantially responsive bidders and if the bid price is 20% or more below AEGCL's cost estimate then AEGCL's tender evaluation committee should clarify the Bid price with the bidder to determine whether the Bid is Abnormally low.
- Relative approach is to be considered when there are at least 5(five) nos. of substantially responsive bids and the lowest bid price is 20% or more below AEGCL's cost estimate. In this approach, first the Average bid price is determined and then by deducting the standard deviation from the Average bid price, potentially ALB may be determined.
- In case of an ALB, the tender evaluation committee/appropriate authority of the respective tenders shall undertake the following three stage review process which is as below:

- To identify ALB as per the steps mentioned in SI no. 10.6.(i) and 10.6.(ii), whichever is applicable.
- To seek and analyse the clarifications from the abnormally low Bidder in terms of resource inputs and pricing, including overheads, contingencies and profit margins. In that respect, the committee may refer to guideline of World Bank, AIIB, ADB etc. prescribed for ALB.
- To decide whether to accept or reject the bid.
- On acceptance of the bid, whether Additional Performance Security is to be imposed on the bidder supplemented by adequate justification.

In case of acceptance of ALB with Additional Performance Security:

- If any abnormally low bid is accepted with additional performance security, it is to be noted that the total performance security should not exceed 20% of the total contract value.
- The additional performance security shall be treated as part of the original performance security and shall be valid for a period similar to that applicable for defect liability period of the contract.

Non submission of the additional performance security shall constitute sufficient ground for rejection of the bid and similar assessment shall then be initiated for next ranked bidder if that bidder is also identified as ALB.

The proportion of Plain Cement Concrete should be 1:3:6 or as specified in the drawing and design. The quality of the mix will have to be checked and approved by the Site In-charge.
Curing should be done properly and as per instructions.
3. SHORING AND PROPPING:-
For pits and trenches requiring stabilising of slope, shoring or propping may be carried out at the Contractors own expense.
4. REINFORCEMENT:-
All reinforcement shall be cleaned thoroughly by removing loose scales, oil, grease or other deleterious materials. The contractor shall obtain the approval of the Engineer-in-charge or his representative to the reinforcement when fixed in position before any concrete is deposited in the forms.

Optimum quantity of water shall be mixed to produce the design mix/nominal mix concrete of required workability. Workability shall be such that the concrete surrounds and properly grips all reinforcement.
The degree of consistency, which shall depend upon nature of work and method of vibration of concrete, shall be determined by regular slump tests to be carried out by the contractor at his cost.
Usually for mass concrete in RCC works where vibrations are used the slumps shall be within 10mm to 25mm. The frequency of such tests and the natures of slumps shall be maintained within the limits specified by the Engineer-in-charge.
7. PLASTERING:-
Surfaces to be rendered must be cleaned and made free from all dust, loose materials, grease, etc, and be well wetted for a few hours ( the wall should not be soaked but only damped evenly); but the wall should not be too wet. Plaster may be applied in one or two coats. No single coat should exceed 12 mm in thickness as thick coats shrink more and crack.
Plaster work on new construction should be deferred as much as possible so as to let shrinkage in reinforced concrete and masonry take place before plastering.
General proportion for cement plaster should be 1:4.
8. CURING:-
Curing should be done as soon as possible after concrete is placed and when initial set has occurred and before it has hardened. It should be continued for a minimum period of 7 to 12 days when normal (Portland) cement is used, 4 to 7 days when rapid hardening cement is used, and should be kept thoroughly wet for 24 hours when high alumina cement is used.
Vertical surfaces may be covered with hanging curtains. Columns and small members shall be cured by wrapping round them wet sacks or by sprinkling water continuously. On vertical surfaces it should be checked that the wet fabric is in contact with the surface.
Water should be sprinkled on the underside of beams and slabs for proper curing.

The work should be started only after having the following documents.

Work order

Site Register

(In terms of Concrete and Brick)

A) General

Concrete shall conform to the requirements of IS 456 and all the tests shall be conducted as per relevant Indian Standard Codes. Concrete shall be carefully cured and special consideration shall be given during the placing of concrete and removal of shuttering.

B) Cement

The cement to be used shall be the best quality of its type. Cements should not be more than three months old. Cements should be free from any lumps and should comply all the IS code provisions. Brands that may be used -----

- i. Ultra-tech cement
- ii. Star cement
- iii. Dalmia cement
- iv. ACC cement
- v. Ambuja cements

C) Aggregate

Coarse and fine aggregate shall conform to the requirements of IS 383-1970. Aggregate shall be hard and dense and free from earth, clay, loam and soft, clayey, or decomposed stone, organic matter and other impurities. River stones are strictly prohibited for use.

D) Water

Water used for mixing concrete and mortar shall be clean, fresh water and free from harmful chemicals, oils, organic matter and other impurities.

E) Mixing of Concrete

Unless otherwise approved, concrete for foundations will be M 20 grade, corresponding to nominal mix of 1:1.5:3 as per IS 456. The proportions of fine and coarse aggregate, cement and water shall be as determined by the mix design or according to fixed proportions in case of nominal mix concrete and shall always be approved by EMPLOYER. Water shall be added to make a workable mix and it is important to maintain the water-cement ratio at its maximum value of 0.55 in accordance with the requirements of IS 456.

F) Placing Concrete

The forms shall be well wetted and all shavings, dirt and water that may have collected at the bottom shall be removed before concrete is placed. Concrete shall be deposited in its final position without segregation, re-handling or flowing. As far as possible concrete shall be placed in the formwork by means approved by EMPLOYER and shall not be dropped from a height or handled in a manner which may cause segregation. Any drop over 180 cm. shall have to be approved by EMPLOYER.

G) Compaction of Concrete

Compaction is necessary for production of good concrete. After the concrete has been placed it shall be thoroughly compacted by approved mechanical vibrator to a maximum subsidence without segregation and thoroughly worked around reinforcement or other embedded fixtures into the correct form and shape. Vibrators must be operated by experienced men. Care should be taken to ensure that the inserts, fixtures, reinforcement and formwork are not displaced or disturbed during the vibration of the concrete.

H) Curing of Concrete

In order to achieve proper and complete strength of the concrete, the loss of water from evaporation should be prevented. The concrete after setting for 24 hours shall be cured by keeping the concrete wet continuously for a period of 10 days after laying. If cracks occur in a structure which are severe enough to affect the structure, the Contractor shall cut out and replace the defective concrete at his own cost. The Contractor's attention is, therefore, drawn to this particular aspect of proper and adequate curing.

I) Standard Methodology -----

- All the scrap materials including the existing roof truss members should to dismantled prior to any work on slab. The dismantled materials should be stored as per instruction of site in charge.
- After dismantling of steel structures dismantling of existing water proofing layer should be done. Care should be taken during dismantling so that mother slab remain in intake position.
- After dismantling the roof should be clean to remove dirt's as well as any loose material. Iron brush/mechanical equipments may be use to make the surface an even surface. To ensure proper adhesion to the old structure hacking needs to be done.
- Mentioned water proofing chemical in 1:1.5 proportion with cement to used in surface dry saturated condition with brush in two layers.
- After 12 hrs another layer of concrete mix of specified ratio to be laid to specified thickness in slope to ensure proper drainage of rainwater. At the same time the sides of the wall to be sealed with same water proofing materials mixed with sand in 1:1 proportion
- Proper curing to be done immediately to maintain quality of concrete.
