- ii. Relative approach is to be considered when there are at least 5(five) nos. of substantially responsive bids and the lowest bid price is 20% or more below AEGCL's cost estimate. In this approach, first the Average bid price is determined and then by deducting the standard deviation from the Average bid price, potentially ALB may be determined.

 - To identify ALB as per the steps mentioned in SI no. 10.6.(i) and 10.6.(ii), whichever is applicable.
 - To seek and analyze the clarifications from the abnormally low Bidder in terms of resource input and pricing, including overheads, contingencies and profit margins. In that respect, the committee may refer to guideline of World Bank, AIIB, ADB etc. prescribed for ALB.
 - To decide whether to accept or reject the bid.

 - If any abnormally low bid is accepted with additional performance security, it is to be noted that the total performance security should not exceed 20% of the total contract value.
 - The additional performance security shall be treated as part of the original performance security and shall be valid for a period similar to that applicable for defect liability period of the contract.
